

SUAVE

WORD DITTY

Vary

Things vary – they're different, nothing's the same.
The weather always varies, sun, wind, snow and rain.

Our lessons vary, the past and the now,
Sport, sums and writing fill the days somehow.

And holidays vary, we walk and we play,
We visit and explore and enjoy every new day.
So three cheers for variety, it makes living fun.

The old saying is so true...

Variety is the spice of life for everyone.
