

SUAVE WORD DITTY

Toil

Sometimes working is such a toil,
Even when it's a subject we usually love.
Maybe it's too hot and our blood starts to boil,
As the sun beats down from high above.

Sometimes we're too tired to dig in the soil,
Sometimes the pen feels too hard to shove.
So come on all, don't let the learning spoil,
And give your best for your teachers who are so beloved.
