Dear Parents & Carers

Changes to Childcare Provision in Flintshire from Monday March 30th 2020

From Monday 30th March Flintshire County Council will be changing its model for the provision of childcare for key workers and vulnerable learners. The Council will operate a smaller number of strategically located primary, secondary and special school hubs, close to major traffic routes in both urban and rural areas.

There will be 12 area hubs made up of 22 school sites. School buildings have been chosen due to their location, their size and their classroom layout, and also to ensure a spread of provision across the County within easy reach.

Local schools will work together to run the childcare in the area hub. This will enable them to redeploy and rota teaching and support staff to take care of the children. This model also allows the Council to re-prioritise its catering and school transport services to support the children accessing the hubs.

The hubs will operate from 8.00 a.m. – 5.30 p.m. Monday to Friday. Children will be fed free of charge – breakfast, lunch and a light afternoon snack. Most parents will be able to drop off and collect their children, but if this is not possible, the Council can arrange transport on request. Arrangements for the school holidays are currently being considered.

We can assure parents that having fewer sites does not mean larger groups of children together. Schools will have plans in place to keep children in the hub sites in very small groups in classrooms, and during break and meal times. They will ensure that social distancing guidelines are followed

Being in a new building that they are not familiar with is something parents and children might be anxious about. Wherever possible, children from the same school will be put together in the small groups, so there will be someone they know. Staff from each local school will also be working in their area hub so there should be friendly faces the children will recognise and be comforted by.

As this is a childcare provision and not statutory education, there will be no separate hubs for Welsh medium or for faith. Usual practices around the safeguarding of children will continue.

You will be aware of this information, but please remember. To limit the spread of COVID-19 it is important that, as far as possible, social contact is minimised. That is staff, parents and children.

Parents need to keep their children at home wherever possible and Hubs should be open only in exceptional circumstances for those children of Key workers who absolutely need to attend.

Only children whose parents are critical to the Covid-19 response should be offered places in the Hub for childcare when there is absolutely no safe, alternative provision, as per new list; please only use school if you really need to.

Each individual school will manage the booking process for parents so they will know who to expect each day, and to ensure that individual needs are met. Parents will be asked to complete a simple registration form with essential details. Schools will be contacting parents directly with the details of how to book places.

We anticipate that parents will probably use their nearest hub but if another hub is more convenient because of travel routes, they can access places there and will be supported by their 'home' headteacher to do so.

The list of school sites designated as hubs are listed at the end of this letter.

If you still have concerns or queries you should now direct them to your 'home school' headteacher who is fully briefed and ready to support you.

The Council is confident that this is the most sustainable and resilient model to deliver this much needed childcare, and will provide the resources to make them a success.

Yours sincerely
